RECOGNIZING NATIONAL CARIBBEAN-AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 22, 2010

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Resolution 1369, which recognizes the significance of National Caribbean-American Heritage Month. Since June of 2006, the White House has issued an annual proclamation recognizing June as the national Caribbean-American Heritage Month. Caribbean's have made important contributions in all facets of American life from the arts to athletics, science and service.

Actors Sidney Poitier and Harry Belafonte and Journalist Malcolm Gladwell are Caribbean-Americans who have achieved greatness in their careers as well as in their communities as humanitarians and activists.

Mr. Poitier, Mr. Belafonte, and Mr. Gladwell have not only paved the way for their fellow Caribbean-Americans, but also for many other Americans who aspire to be musicians, journalists, actors and agents of change. For the past 50 years, Poitier has been an example to all Americans because of the work he did to help break down barriers in film and cinema. Poitier was recently awarded the 2009 Presidential Medal of Freedom because of his post-Hollywood activities. Belafonte has earned the title "King of Calypso" for popularizing Caribbean style music. Belafonte was also recently awarded the Hubert H. Humphrey Civil and Human Rights Award for his lifelong efforts for equality and justice. Malcolm Gladwell is a best-selling author who TIME magazine recognized in 2005 as one of the 100 most influential people in the world. His works have shown us the importance of looking at life with a critical eye and finding the small factors that have large consequences in our lives.

Because of their fame, Mr. Poitier, Mr. Belafonte and Mr. Gladwell have been properly recognized on multiple occasions; but it is imperative that we recognize the Caribbean-American Community as a whole because the diversity and talent they bring to the United States enriches and strengthens our country.

HONORING EDNA V. BAEHRE, PH.D., COLLEGE PRESIDENT OF HACC, CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA'S COMMUNITY COLLEGE

HON. TIM HOLDEN

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

Mr. HOLDEN. Madam Speaker, I wish to honor Dr. Edna Victoria Baehre for service as College President for HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College. Dr. Baehre has been the longest serving President of HACC, having held the position for 13 years.

Dr. Baehre is a 1971 graduate of Paedagogische Hochschule in Heidelberg, Germany and holds M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the State University of New York at Buffalo. Her dedication to education has been displayed throughout her life, having held executive positions at community colleges in Illinois and New York before accepting the position of President of HACC in 1997.

During her time at HACC, Dr. Baehre has led the institution through four successive strategic plans, and has laid the groundwork for a fifth. Her vision and leadership have aided the college in meeting the ever-changing and increasing demands for a trained and educated workforce within South-Central Pennsylvania. Dr. Baehre's contribution to the college is also displayed in the undergraduate student enrollment increase from 10,250 in 1997 to nearly 25,000 today. Additionally, 50,000 citizens are currently enrolled in non-credit programs, workforce training, and public safety training.

I congratulate Dr. Baehre on her achievements as President of HACC and for her contribution in aiding the college to expand both in numbers and in status. Her dedication and leadership are to be admired and celebrated, and I wish her the best of luck as she takes her new post as President of Napa Valley Community College.

HONORING ABIGAIL FRONICK AND NATASHA SANFORD

HON. RUSS CARNAHAN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

Mr. CARNAHAN. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor and acknowledge Abigail Fronick and Natasha Sanford, two young people from the Third Congressional District who are truly a credit to both the State of Missouri and the nation as a whole.

Abigail and Natasha have been selected to receive the Congressional Award for their outstanding efforts in community service and personal development. Each devoted over four hundred hours of voluntary public service to St. Louis Irish Arts, where they taught and performed traditional Irish dance for the benefit of people of all ages.

As is required for the Congressional Award, each of these young women also completed an expedition of personal discovery, traveling to Ireland to become immersed in a different culture and study Irish music.

Natasha and Abigail have both demonstrated a passion for self-discovery through the examination of traditional Irish culture, and extended that passion to the education and betterment of others within their community.

Young people such as these show a promising future for the United States, and I am proud and honored to have such individuals in the Third Congressional District of the great state of Missouri. I find it fitting that we should recognize their achievements here today, and I look forward to how they will continue to apply themselves in the future.

CONGRATULATING CHELSEY HOFER AND ANGEL MILLENDER, WINNERS OF THE 2010 CONGRESSIONAL AWARD GOLD MEDAL

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate two of my constituents, Chelsey Marie Hofer and Angel Millender, the recipients of the 2010 Congressional Award Gold Medal, the United States Congress' only award for American youth. Earning this award requires at least 400 hours of community service, including 200 hours of both personal development and physical fitness activities, and a four-night expedition or exploration. Since 1979, the Congressional Award has inspired our Nation's youth to set and achieve personally challenging goals that build character and foster community service, personal development, and citizenship.

I have done a lot during my lifetime, yet I was amazed to see how much these two have accomplished at such a young age. Having volunteered at organizations like the American Red Cross, Girl Scouts of the USA, and People to People International, Ms. Chelsie Marie Hofer has shown great humility and perseverance. As Ms. Hofer said: "I learned that by setting goals and working hard, I can achieve anything." Mr. Angel Millender is passionate and determined. He took the initiative to be of service at his local hospital's Intensive Care Unit to assist individuals dealing with traumatic experiences. Mr. Millender also surrounded himself with positive young men by joining the "Men of Tomorrow" youth group. Both award winners traveled internationally for their "Expedition Experience"—Ms. Hofer to Japan and Mr. Millender to Panama, where they embraced the local culture and history.

Madam Speaker, Martin Luther King, Jr., said: "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'" The recipients of the Gold Medal are shining examples of a sense of civic duty at an early age. I congratulate both Ms. Chelsey Hofer and Mr. Angel Millender of West Palm Beach, Florida, on this incredible achievement. I am inspired by their energy, passion and commitment to service their community.

Madam Speaker, it is my pleasure to recognize the 23rd Congressional District of Florida's recipients of the 2010 Congressional Award Gold Medal for all they have done to serve the Palm Beach County community and I wish them much success in their future endeavors.
